

The Academy of St. Louis is the only Catholic K-12 school for Special Education in St. Louis. We provide a trauma-informed approach, individualized education, and a staff-to-student ratio of 3:1. Our small size allows us to meet each student's academic and emotional needs and to prepare them for life after high school.

Title: Special Education Teacher

Employment type: Full-time, 7:30-3:30 pm, additional hours as needed

Reports to: Principal

Please send your resume to kpuettmann@acadstl.org for consideration.

Job Summary:

The successful team member will understand the teaching and learning process needed to support students with autism and learning disabilities. They will also be familiar with ABA therapies and trauma-informed behavior models.

Qualifications:

Bachelor's Degree (master's preferred) in special education (social/emotional disabilities) with a valid Missouri Teaching Certificate with certification for teaching Special Education.

- Two-year minimum teaching experience as a lead teacher within a special education classroom and a solid working knowledge of the Catholic Faith.
- He or she must be a compassionate, positive educator who challenges and aids students in meeting their annual academic, social, and emotional goals.
- Ability to work collaboratively with others is essential.

Benefits:

- Dental Insurance
- Health insurance
- Vision insurance

Schedule:

- Monday to Friday, 7:30-3:30 pm

Experience:

- Special Education: 1 year (Required)
- Childcare: 2 years (Required)

License/Certification:

- Special Education Certification (Required)